

Ezra Toh Wen Rhu is an associate in Messrs Esther Ong Tengku Saiful & Sree's legal team. He graduated with a LL.B (Hons) from the University of Liverpool in 2015 and holds a Certificate in Legal Practice. He was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2019.

He completed his pupillage with Messrs Azhar & Wong where he was exposed to general civil litigation and banking litigation including foreclosure, bankruptcy, winding up of companies, garnishee, debt recovery and subrogation proceedings.

Prior to his pupillage, he was an in-house counsel of Aeon Co. (M) Bhd whereby he provided legal advice and strategizes solutions in respect of commercials and contracts, trademark, tenancy and compliances.

He joined Messrs Esther Ong Tengku Saiful & Sree in January 2020. Currently, he is dealing with litigation matters such as matrimonial disputes, probate, letter of administration, debt recovery and breach of contract.

For matrimonial matter, he is currently dealing with a party who is a foreigner and going to divorce a marriage locally and he is helping the Petitioner to get a declaration in court in order to obtain the divorce in Malaysia. He is also attending a family matter to help bring the child to follow the father to overseas to have better education.

He is also entrusted with conveyancing matters including sale & purchase of properties, perfection of transfer and charge, tenancy agreements and leases. He managed to recover the earnest deposits in full which was forfeited by the Vendor when the Purchaser defaulted when he bought a factory lot.

Currently, he is attending to conclude the administration of probate granted by the court and to execute the assets in particular, gold by liaising with the Bank of Negara who had kept the gold of a company.

